Pieces of Wisdom

We asked our graduates: What becomes available when you register your accomplishments?

I never got my 12th grade, and this year I completed it! It took me 48 years, but once I started it, it took me 11 weeks. When I got this diploma, my story that everyone was better than me disappeared. Now anything is available to me. I can be curious and confident in life and with people around me!
~ Krystalle Tanner, Calgary (Wisdom Assisting Team)

Focusing on freedom of self-expression, I started creating my vision newly and sharing it with others—not only is my business booming, I am on a national and emerging international stage now, leading a conversation for non-profit fundraising and philanthropy. ~ Michelle Muri, Seattle (The Wisdom Unlimited Course)

I experience myself being out here with people and with life and allowing my natural gifts to shine so others do the same . . . empowering colleagues and students . . . from Year-end Vacation, leading from possibility of "Celebrating as a Community." Empowerment, love and miracles . . . all with ease and unstoppable. ~ Eilish O'Connor, Northern Ireland (Partnership Explorations)

Owning my long-held love of being lazy, I discovered value in identifying the smallest action to fulfill any possibility. These tiny actions are easy to practice and repeat and with time become the foundation of big results. And as I now like to say, practice is the "compound interest" of transformation.
~ Rose Grant, Australia (Year-end Vacation)
